

“I’m going to give you a compliment that I very rarely, ever give. I wish you had played longer.”

Alan Pepper, owner, The Bottom Line

“Marina Belica is perhaps the unsung hero of October Project. [Her] voice is delicate yet powerful and it is wonderful to hear her singing lead. The EP is destined to achieve widespread critical acclaim and worth a cross-country journey; we certainly think it is a must listen.”

Russ Elliot, musicaldiscoveries.com

“Melody gushes from Marina Belica’s lips in dazzling swirls of Spin Art poetry. Her music has a rousing beauty that invigorates the soul.”

“In the mid 90s “Return to Me” by October Project was one of the biggest songs on WBER. The band carved itself a permanent slot in our 15 year history with their truly unique and alternative sound. Now 7 years later it's happening all over again with Marina Belica's version of “Return to Me.” The record has been top 5 phones since the first week we started playing it!” [“Return to Me” went to #1 on WBER in April, 2001 and was in the Top 20 for the year]

Joey Guisto, Music Director/Assistant Program Director, WBER, Rochester, NY

“Former October Project vocalist Marina Belica returns with her new lush EP, “decembergirl.” Belica's layered Renaissance-like hauntings on “When You Go” and “Return to Me” will entice not only fans of her former outfit, but those of Annie Haslam, Kate Bush and Loreena McKennitt. A spirited, soulful listen.” [Music Choice has added “When You Go,” the first track on decembergirl to their Progressive Channel. The digital music service is available in 17 million homes nationwide via cable and satellite through partnerships with AOL/Time Warner, Cox, Comcast, Adelphia and DirectTV.]
